

Benefits to Your Organization

Before the Program

1. At your option, we will schedule a conference call to review exactly what you want to achieve with the program!
2. Your organization will receive handout materials in PDF format at least 10 days in advance of the session. If your time schedule needs it sooner we will attain your agreed upon deadline.
3. The Thompson Consulting Group, LLC will advertise your program on our website and notify people in your state who have expressed interest in our programs!
4. As a "Guru" for Bankersonline.Com, we will post your event on that website.
5. Clients who retain our services for a full day's program will receive one article in advance to publicize the event if requested. The article will describe the benefits of attending this program.

During the Event: My Pledge to You

1. I will notify you immediately upon my arrival at your location.
2. If invited, I will attend all functions at your program to make the experience more meaningful for your attendees.
3. The night before the presentation or the morning of the presentation I will review your meeting room to be sure that sound and set up are correct.

4. I will be in the meeting room at least 30 minutes before my presentation!
5. I will stay after the program and answer all questions of your attendees unless travel commitments negate this.
6. If another speaker becomes ill or unable to teach his or her session, I will take the stage immediately and cover that presentation at no extra charge. The program presented would be a subject from my area of expertise that you would select.

After the Program

1. All expenses will be submitted with documentation no less than 15 days after the program!
2. When your members returns home, they sometimes discover they still have one more question they would like answered. I will be available to them via telephone to answer that question without charge to your organization or their's for one year. If the question requires legal advice, they will be directed to their legal counsel. If the question requires research they will be notified what my costs are to resolve the situation for them.
